Instructions: This form indicates which departmental and university requirements you have completed and which you must complete before graduation. If you have any questions, speak to your faculty adviser about department requirements, or to an academic adviser about other requirements.

Special Notes for Juniors:

This form is used to determine your eligibility for graduation and must be completed and filed with the Office of Academic Advising in the spring of your junior year.

1. Complete this form and have it approved and signed by your faculty adviser in the spring of your junior year. After this, make an appointment in the Office of Academic Advising and bring this form and a copy of your transcript to the adviser clearing for your major.
2. This form must be filled out completely and neatly, including course title and number as listed on transcript.
3. When noting that a course has been completed, please write in the grade you earned in that course under the column "Completed."
4. If you have completed the checklist with an adviser in the Office of Academic Advising and you make a change in a required course you intended to take you must notify the adviser of that change.

Area of Emphasis: Students must take three courses outside the program in a separate area (i.e., courses that are not cross-listed with Film and Media Studies), ideally in an area that can be brought to bear on the study of film or media in significant ways. Such clusters could focus on other media and art forms (e.g. photography, writing, theater, etc.); cross-disciplinary topics or sets of problems (e.g. the urban environment, violence, and pornography, censorship, etc.); or subfields within area studies (e.g., Women and Gender Studies, African American Studies, Jewish Studies, etc.) and traditional disciplines (e.g. history, anthropology, philosophy, etc.). Students develop this emphasis in consultation with the Director of Undergraduate Studies.
